3rd Asian Conference on Science, Technology & Medicine 2019 was a great Success. The 3 day conference was held at Carlton palace Hotel, Deira Dubai from 12-14 February, 2019. The conference was hosted and organized by The Asian Council of Science Editors (The ACSE).

The first day of conference was started with warm welcome from Conference Chair; Dr. Shakil Akhtar from Clayton State University USA. In his welcome address he pointed out wide range of themes covering the multidisciplinary tracks including Medical Sciences, Pharmacology & Toxicology, IT & Computer Sciences, Environmental Sciences and Social Sciences. Throughout the three days a thought- provoking amalgamation of session chairs as well as presentations pertinent to specific area were observed during the conference.

The 2019 program was the ACSTM's biggest yet with three synchronized sessions including a research combination of science, technology & medicine and supportive care bringing together leading national and international experts who presented and contributed to the program with information about the latest science and research. ACSTM 2019 was attended by more than 200 researchers, and focused on latest innovation and key issues relating to their specific research fields.

These vivid talks were delivered by the world-known, vastly accomplished speakers from more than 25 countries, mainly including USA, Turkey, Greece, Bulgaria, China, Japan, Malaysia, Indonesia, Bangladesh, Egypt, Bosnia, Singapore, Mauritius, Oman, Saudi Arabia, Bahrain, Iraq, Philippines, India, Pakistan, Sudan, Guyana, Nigeria and South Africa.

The conference truly exhibit the speakers and attendees with the latest research and information on science, technology medicine and treatment advances, while providing a space for potential industry partner formation through an array of networking opportunities.

The vision and aim of Council members for organizing ACSTM parallel with the ACSE annual conference fulfill in its true means this year by having a significant gathering of academia and industry on same platform exploring the new solutions, discussing their common problems and having national to international level networking.
